2020-2021 Panda Mandarin Programs

Who is this for?
Students just starting to explore Mandarin as a language and may or may not want to take additional programs later. They have had no exposure to Mandarin previously (beginners).

Focus
Introduction to speaking, listening, culture.

Time Commitment
Month-to-month, 30-45 minutes per week depending on age level.

Class Sizes
Between 3 and 10 students.

Type
Virtual
In-person (TBD)

Who is this for?
Students who have had exposure to the language (either at home or in class) and want a fun and engaging way to keep up with their Mandarin. Most students previously enrolled in our year-long programs should consider this stream.

Focus
Enrichment in speaking, listening, some reading, pinyin. For older ages, more reading, some writing.

Time Commitment
By term (Fall, Winter, Spring), 45-60 minutes per week depending on age level, review exercises & summaries provided for at home use. Previously, students had to enroll for the full year but now can enroll by term.

Class Sizes
Between 3 and 10 students.

Type
Virtual
In-person (TBD)

Who is this for?
Students who have had exposure to the language and want to become proficient in Mandarin. They are at least of an intermediate level to join with ability to read pinyin. A textbook/workbook will be provided. Students who were in our advanced or two-days a week program can consider this class.

Focus
Academic focus in speaking, listening, reading, pinyin, writing. Potential to take HSK, YCT, or OCT exams.

Time Commitment
School year, 2 x 90 minutes per week depending on age level with homework and tests throughout.

Class Sizes
Between 3 and 6 students.

Type
Virtual
In-person (TBD)

Note: an assessment will be conducted prior to the student joining the program.

Age Groupings

For all our programs (Explorers, Voyagers, and Scholars) we group our students by age.

- Babies/Minis: under 2.5 years old
- Bananas: between 2.5 and 4 years old
- Cubs: between 4 and 6 years old
- Indies: between 6 and 9 years old
- Giants: between 9 and 12 years old
